EXAMINATIONS.

Thorough written examinations are held regularly throughout the year on the completion of each subject. A certificate is issued to those students who pass with credit on all subjects embraced in 2 and 3.

SPECIAL LECTURES.

From time to time during the term lectures will be delivered before the school by eminent judges and lawyers.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) is conferred by the University upon candidates who have completed courses 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6, and have passed all examinations with credit. Two years of residence are ordinarily required of all students who desire to offer themselves as candidates for the degree. Every candidate must submit a thesis on some subject selected by the senior Professor of Law. Applicants for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be twenty years of age, and must have completed an academic course equivalent to that of the Freshman and Sophomore years in the College.

MOOT COURT.

The Moot Court is an important factor in legal educational methods; it familiarizes the student with the practical side of law. It is the purpose of the University Court to acquaint the student with the legal details so necessary to be acquired yet so difficult of access. Regular sessions are held, and every student in the Law School has a frequent opportunity for practice. The work is thorough and is carried on from the inception of the suit to the final judgment in the Appellate Court. The Court is held every Saturday night.

Where full tuition, $37.50, is paid, students may also take the elementary course if it is desired.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION.

Candidates for admission into the Law School should present themselves on the same day and at the same hour with candidates for admission into the College, either in September or January. Candidates for admission and students already members of the school are expected to register on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, September 8, 9 or 10, 1902, or Friday, Saturday or Monday, January 2, 3, or 5, 1903. The session of the Law School is of the same length with the College year. All members of the Law School enjoy the same privileges with other students in the University.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL.

JUNE, JULY, AUGUST, 1902.

The Summer Law School is maintained for the purpose of providing:—

1st. A course for those who wish to begin the study of law—Junior Class.

2nd. A thorough review of the course prescribed by the Supreme Court for applicants for license at the September Term.

3rd. An opportunity for members of the bar who desire to review any branch of the Law.

SUPREME COURT EXAMINATIONS.

The Supreme Court of North Carolina has wisely prescribed written examinations for applicants for license to practice law.

That this action necessitates thorough training is evidenced by the fact that, at the February Term, 1899, only twenty out of fifty-two applicants were successful, and of these successful applicants seventeen were prepared at the University Law School. At the February term, 1900, there were forty-seven applicants of whom thirty-three were licensed. Twenty-two of these were students of this Law School. At the February Term, 1901, of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, of the twenty-four applicants who were licensed fourteen were students of this Law School—nine men with and five without certificates.

Every student who has received a certificate from this school has been granted license to practice law.

SESSION.

Begins June 9th and ends the last Friday in August. These dates are adapted to the change in the time for the fall term of the Supreme Court.

LECTURES AND RECITATIONS.

Lectures and recitations are held daily for each class continuing one hour and a half in each case. Lectures will be delivered by prominent lawyers during the term.

MODE OF INSTRUCTION.

The work of the course is directed by means of text-books, lectures, leading cases, quizzes, and the Moot Court.

Junior Class.

Ewells Essentials of the Law, which includes Domestic Relations, Real Property Law, Personal Property Law, Criminal Law and the Law of Contracts and Torts. The other text-books used will be Manning's Commentaries of 1st Blackstone. 2nd Blackstone and Williams on Real Property. 3rd Blackstone and Code Pleading. 4th Blackstone and Criminal Law. Clark on Contracts. Bigelow on Torts.

Senior Class.

First Greenleaf on Evidence with Code Chapter on Evidence. Bispham's Equity. Clark on Corporations. Schouler on Executors, with the Code Chapters on Widows, Wills and Testimony. First Volume North Carolina Code with Clark's C. C. P. The Constitutions of the United States and of North Carolina. Sharswood's Legal Ethics.

EXAMINATIONS.

No entrance examination is required, but each student must satisfy the faculty that he has sufficient general training to enable him to take the course with profit to himself. Examinations are required as each subject is completed, and at the end of the term certificates are issued to those who have passed with credit all the examinations.

FEES AND EXPENSES.

The tuition for the Junior class is $30; for the Senior class $30; for both classes $50. Any student who has attended the regular session for two terms and paid his fees in cash may take the full summer course for $30.

Any licensed attorney desiring to review the course will be permitted to do so for thirty dollars. The registration fee is three dollars. There are no scholarships in this department. Board in the village with room will cost from ten to twenty dollars per month; without rooms from eight to fifteen dollars.

For further information address, President F. P. Venable, Hon. Jas. C. MacRae, Dean, University Law School, or Dr. Thos. Ruffin, Associate Professor of Law, Chapel Hill, N. C.
